

Thaddeus Richardson
Lyndonville, VT

A lifetime Vermonter, Thad has over fifteen years' experience in the financial services industry. Following several years with Bombardier Capital in Colchester, he moved to the Northeast Kingdom to start a family, and has been with Community National Bank since 2005. As VP Municipal Services & Asset Liability Management, Thad is currently responsible for the municipal banking operation, investment portfolio, and interest rate risk functions of the $600 million institution. Prior to this role he was a Commercial Lender, providing financing solutions to small businesses in Caledonia County.

Education includes BS in accounting from Castleton University, and MBA from Clarkson University.

Non-profit activities currently include Vice Chair/Treasurer for Northern Counties Health Care, a federally qualified health center and home health agency in the NEK, Treasurer for Northeast Kingdom Human Services, the designated mental health agency of the NEK, and Trustee at Lyndon Institute, an independent secondary school serving both local and international students. Other active boards include the St Johnsbury/Lyndon Industrial Park, and the Lyndon Area Development Fund. Thad also volunteers as a coach for the NEK Clayshooters, a club formed to introduce shooting sports to students of Lyndon Institute.
